

Revolutionizing Digital Advertisements in public spaces

Overview

A digital advertising platform that allows businesses and property owners to manage and monetize advertising screens within their buildings. Our solution offers features for managing ads, inviting other businesses to advertise, and scheduling technical visits for screen installation and maintenance. it ensures scalability, real-time updates, and an intuitive user experience. The platform supports various user types, including admins, advertisers, and building owners, with tools for screen management, ad approvals, and lead tracking.

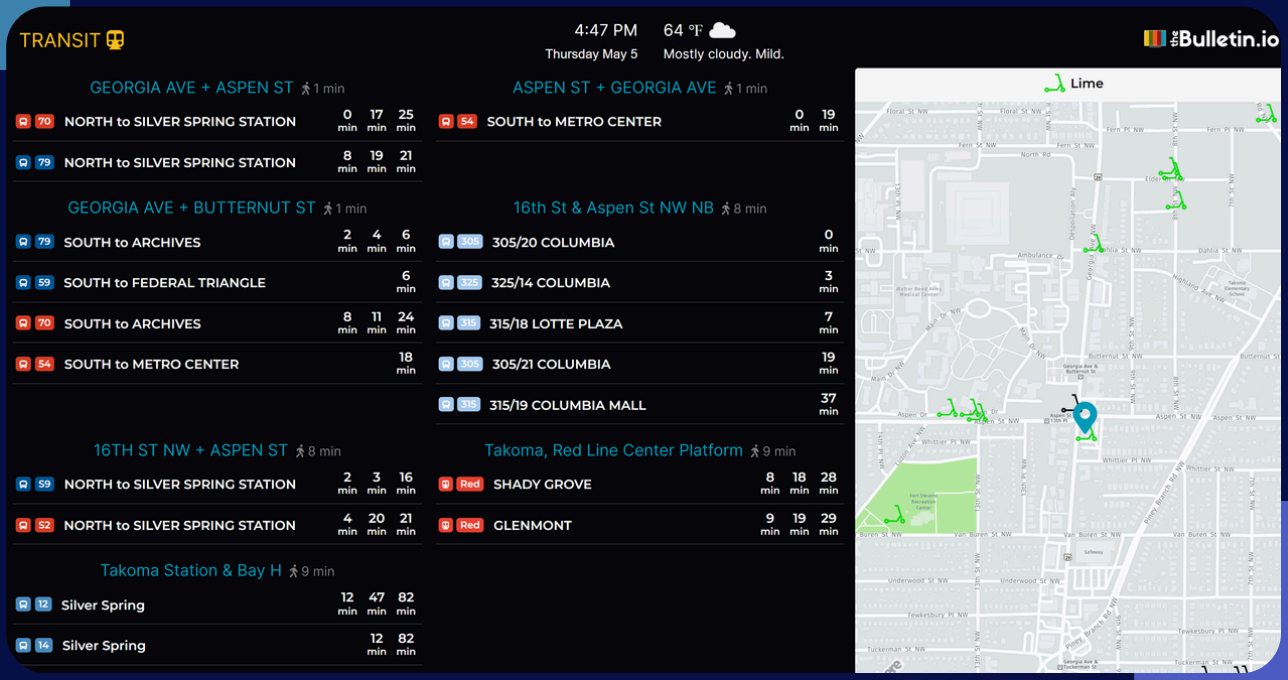

About client

Our client specializes in digital advertisement platform, available in major cities like Chicago, NYC, DC, and Boston. The platform provides real-time monitoring, analytics, and reporting to track ad performance, serving businesses, building owners, and advertisers. The platform enables property owners and businesses to manage advertising screens in public spaces. It streamlines ad placement and monetization, allowing advertisers to target a broad audience.

Challenges

- Managing Diverse Venue and Screen Data
- Streamlining Ad Creation and Approval Workflows
- Handling Complex User Roles and Permissions
- Tracking and Scheduling Technical Visits
- Lead Management and Integration

Key features

VENUE MANAGEMENT

Enables admins to manage screen details and configure venues for content display

AD CREATION AND MANAGEMENT

Provides tools to create, manage ads, track performance, and monitor subscriptions.

TECH VISIT TRACKING

Enables admins to schedule, track technical visits, manage expenses, and gather post-visit feedback.

USER MANAGEMENT

Admins can create, delete, transfer accounts, and assign roles to manage secure platform access.

LEAD MANAGEMENT AND SYNCHRONIZATION

Admins can filter leads, sync data with maps, and manage real-time screen availability.

Solution

The platform enables efficient venue management, allowing admins to control screen details and visibility for both community and owner content. It simplifies ad creation, approval, and performance tracking. Tech-visit scheduling and maintenance are streamlined, with expense and feedback management. Admins can manage user accounts, roles, and permissions securely. Real-time lead and screen data synchronization ensures accurate tracking and informed decision-making.

Results and impacts

40%

Streamlined Ad Creation, Approval, and Performance Tracking

70%

Increased Efficiency in Venue and Screen Management

35%

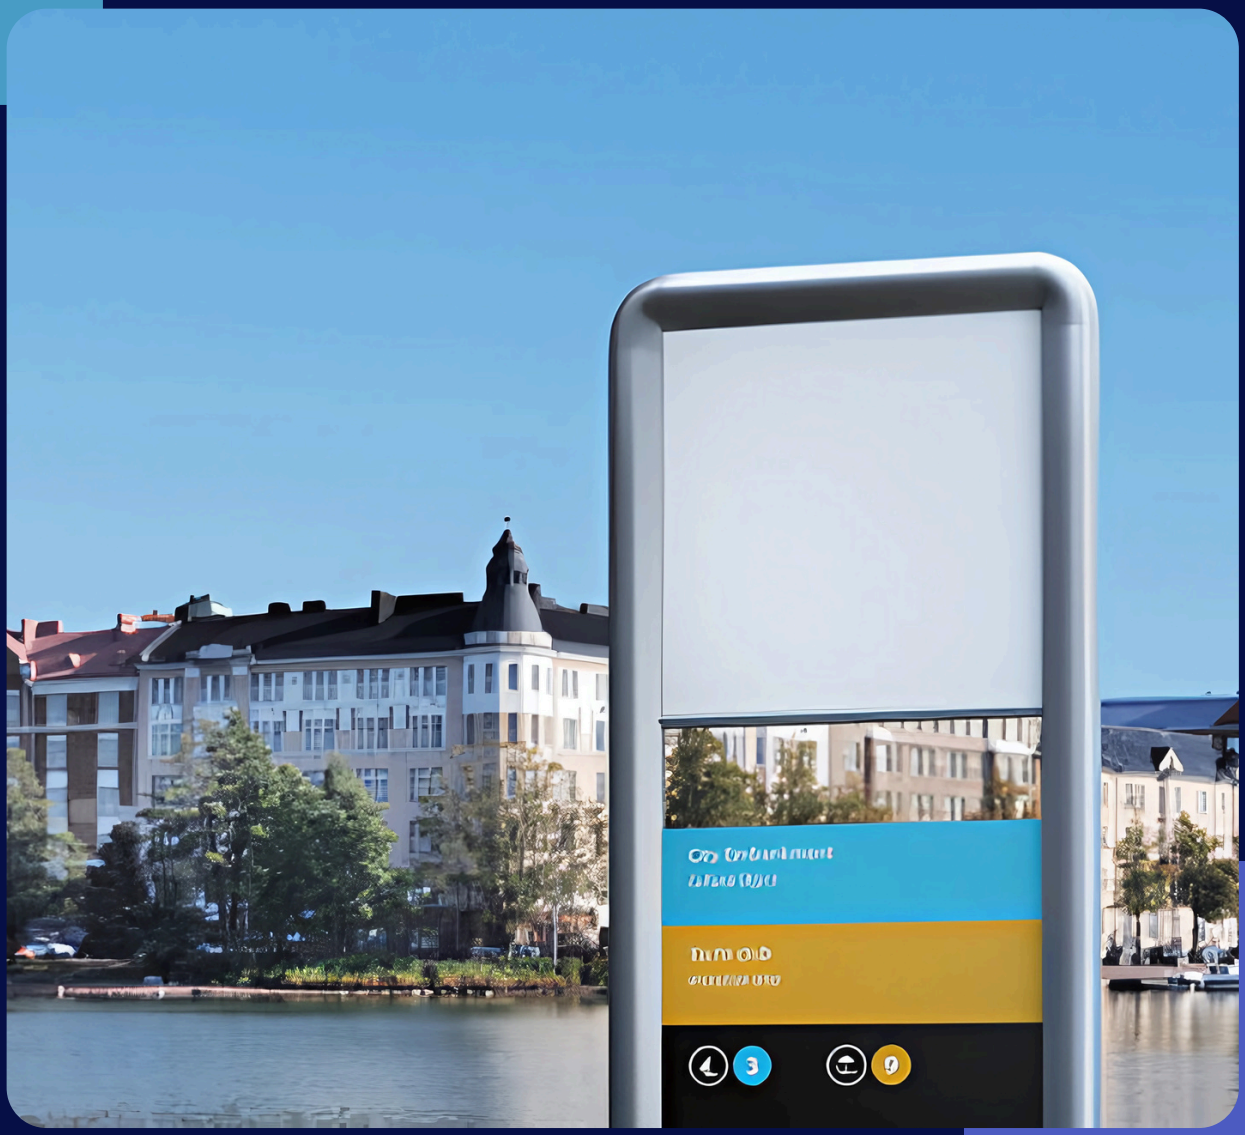

Improved Tech-Visit Management and Support

60%

Enhanced User Management and Account Control

55%

Increased Lead Conversion and Tracking

Conclusion

The platform meets the growing demand for digital advertising in public spaces with a scalable solution for property owners and advertisers. Key features like venue handling, ad management, user roles, and tech-visit tracking streamline the ad process. Built with Angular, Node.js, and Firestore, the system ensures real-time capabilities and scalability. Using an agile development approach, the project was delivered on time, providing an intuitive user experience and an efficient platform for managing digital ads across venues.